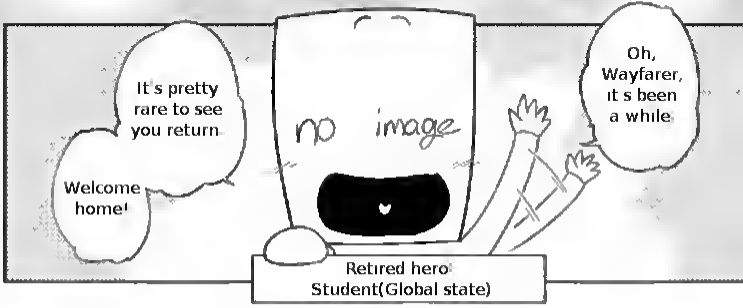
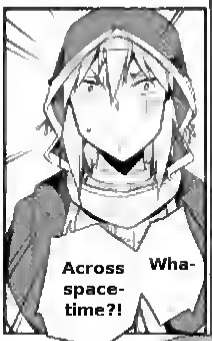
In the middle of a desert, a city has grown around an oasis...

I've finally returned home[Retired heroes side]

1.Retired hero Wayfarer(Wana a=Din)
My home has turned weird, I can t make fun of Sage anymore like this



What exactly happened?
And how am I involved in this? lol
Welcome back, Wayfarer
Retired hero
Sage(Sky Garden)
Oh, so you're back now, Wayfarer?
Is there a change in people s mentality?
Retired hero
Priest(Floy Legas)
Has he been around for a long time?
So what exactly happened? And I think this is my first time see Wayfarer here
Sage, you seem oddly polite
Well, hey there, I guess
6 Retired hero_Student
Yep,
he's been here for a long time!
no image
Retired hero
Magician(Miryu Mi)
He actually travels across different worlds!
he travels around!
no image
As his name implies,



He actually traverses the space-time between the worlds, so when he mentions his home, he's referring to his original world

Retired hero
Master Swordsman(Seyura)

Retired hero
Rare Devil(Heavenly Heaven)

Oh,
and what sort of whim are you acting on?
Retired hero:
Mountain Wizard(Axis Phase Earth)
Mmm.
Retired hero:
Dragon Lord(Loir Rem)
Oh,
I see all of you are still conspiring together,
did you come to extort some souvenirs?
What sort of gathering is this?
Huh?!

a senior?
Wayfarer is...
no image
he's one of the seniors!
Yep.
Wayfarer is the one who started the thread after all...
it's all the seniors lol
Ah.
Come on now!
You magicians are definitely capable of that Aren't you capable of sending them over instantly?
Hurry up and hand them over!
Are you claiming to not have any?
Mmm.
By the way, what sort of worlds did you visit?

24 Retired hero: Magician
Err... So, um...
Are you a ridiculously skilled magician, Wayfarer?

25 Retired hero: Sage
Obviously, he can walk through space-time after all. lol

26 Retired hero: Priest
Just meddling with space-time requires you to be level 8.
He does work for the association.

27 Retired hero: Student
He's powerful, he's old, and he loves traveling!

28 Retired hero: Magician
Wh-What the hell, I just feel out of place here.

We have enough magicians as it is That's easy to say.
but a magician just has to try and touch space-time.
Mmm.
33 Retired hero, Wayfarer
That's right,
you should aim to affect space-time yourself, Magician.
34 Retired hero, Magician
Oh God, he's talking to me!
lol Magician
no image
We should really leave it at this.
Magician isn't immortal,
so he can't be like you

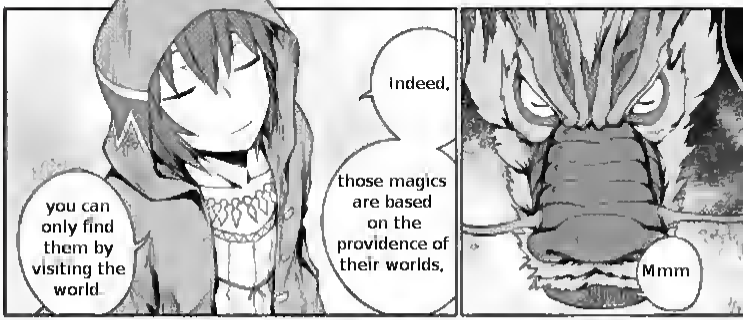
Huh?
It's odd, something about what Priest said
is really bothering me...
39 Retired hero: Rare Devil
Hmph, he can just use magic to give himself immortality
How long has it been since Wayfarer returned to his world?
And why was I mentioned in his post? lol
no image
I wanna hear uncle Wayfarer's story
Come on now, Grandpa,
Let's see,
I think it's been about 300 years now.
43 Retired hero: Mountain Wizard
Oho, and how many worlds have you visited in that time?

Mmm
I have, at times, seen specific themes though.
I cannot count the worlds I have visited.
I've toured gourmet worlds.
I've toured worlds with high-grade liqueurs.
I've enjoyed worlds with picturesque scenery
I've indulged in worlds with beautiful women.
I've relaxed in worlds with hot springs.

I discovered worlds with unusual cultures
I've gone in sightseeing worlds with ancient cultures
I've gone on pleasure jaunts
And I've studied in magical worlds.
in scientific worlds

47.Retired hero: Sage
lol at that last one.

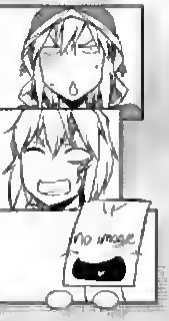
48.Retired hero: Student
Boy that's an amazing experience!



53 Retired hero: Magician
Ugh
This conversation is just too much for me to handle

54 Retired hero: Sage
All the seniors are like this. lol

55 Retired hero: Student
You're one to talk, Sage. lol



56 Retired hero: Master Swordsman
Hmph, I don't see what's so interesting in your magics.

57 Retired hero: Rare Devil
All because you're just a musclehead.

I'm also a magician, and yet I feel so distant...

These people...

Those gathered here certainly lack a bit of common sense. lol

But I suppose the seniors can't help it. lol

no image

and their common sense is warped...

There are few people who know of different magics,

62 Retired hero: Dragon Lord
Mmm.

63 Retired hero: Mountain Wizard
Oho,
it certainly is vexing.

Huh?

That's just an excuse.

64. Retired hero: Magician
Uh, okay, so then...
Uh...
Err...

65. Retired hero: Student
Magician's overloaded! lol
So, Wayfarer,
what did you find when you returned home?

a bunch of things happened and the whole world changed
It seems
72 Retired hero: Sage
Well, after 300 years,
it's no surprise that some things change
73 Retired hero: Magician
There's some world where the culture completely changed in 100 years
74 Retired hero: Student
Oh, that's my world. lol no magic there's a massive desert on one of the continents here
Let me just give you an example,
Japan in the Earth series worlds is a whole other beast

But when I returned, there was a city built around some water there
There s absolutely no water there, thus it s called "the desert of death"
Long ago, 3 people attempted to cross it and 2 died along the way
A village sprung up there and then grew into a city
It went from a desert of death to a place where barely anyone dies of thirst
It s grown to the point of being called "the water of life metropolis"
Apparently this holy lord of miracles created a water vein for people traveling through the desert of death.
Hmph, I see lol

77 Retired hero, Sage
Uh, yeah, lol

78 Retired hero, Student
Oh, lol
What else happened?

no image

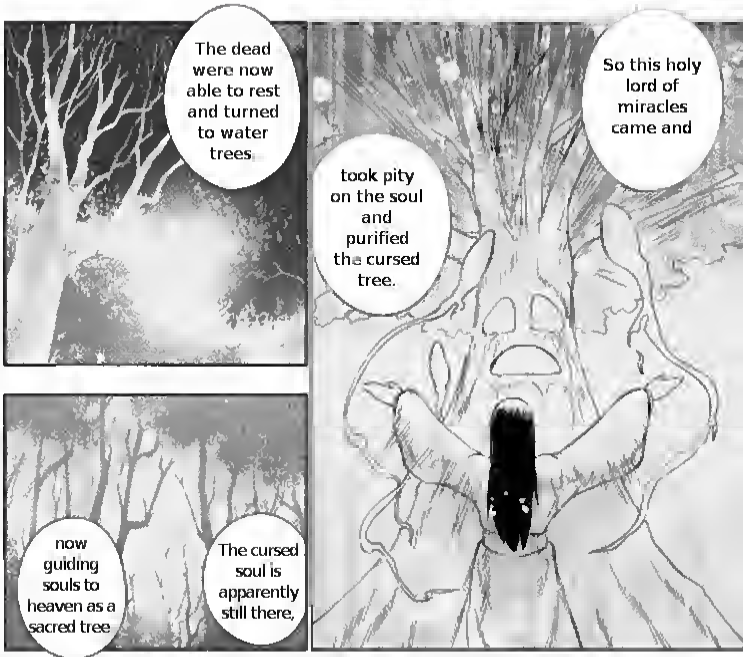
at the border between 2 countries, there used to be the cursed forest

Right,

Those that died cursing something would become a cursed tree, able to call upon the other plants.

Anyone passing through would lose themselves in this forest

When I went to see it though, it had become The Forest of Lament



The dead were now able to rest and turned to water trees
So this holy lord of miracles came and took pity on the soul and purified the cursed tree.
now guiding souls to heaven as a sacred tree
The cursed soul is apparently still there,

80 Retired hero_Magician
It seems like the world has improved
Or am I wrong somehow?

81 Retired hero_Priest
I can see where you'd think that--

82 Retired hero_Rare Devil
So what are the motives behind this?

83 Retired hero_Sage
Yeah, that's important part_lol

and I got thirsty, so I excavated some water
Oh boy...
Long ago, I was walking through the desert
I had a feeling that was the case
no image
Knew it! lol
Huh?
Mmm
I was walking through a forest a long time ago
Oh, so then what about "The Cursed Forest"?

Wha-
I'm sorry!
Knock taff
and a cursed tree annoyed me, so I forcefully purified it

That explains why he mentioned me lol
Mmm
How obvious
Knew it! lol
no image

And there's more incidents like this
That's right,
I just can't make fun of you anymore for being called "Sage of the Forest" while you just holed up somewhere and just created a barrier around them.

I went out to kill the demons, but got sick of it
There was a small country being attacked by demons because of their treasure
There s a legendary sacred sword passed down in a certain royal family,
The white holy bridge spans a poisonous grassland, but that s just because a king cried to me about not having something I just made it because I didn t want to deal with the grassland to combat demons with and I made a sword that would kill demons.

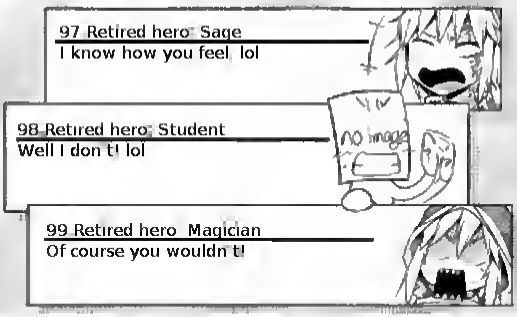
which is beyond me
Apparently all of this created a legend about a holy lord of miracles.



97 Retired hero Sage
I know how you feel lol
98 Retired hero Student
Well I don t! lol
no image
99 Retired hero Magician
Of course you wouldn t!

I simply went around killing demons and people started calling me a hero
That s just how people are.

After killing all the demons aboveground, I spent 100 years wiping them out in their den.
I eventually returned to find that my hometown was now known as the hero's birthplace, but all I cared about was polishing my sword skills.
That's roughly what happened to me.
so I let him enjoy the sleep he so loves by putting him into a coma.
I was surprised when some country's emperor woke up after many years of sleeping
A cheeky little sleep demon kept interrupting my sleep,
